Technical Training at Echelon Institute of Technology neither begins nor ends with the training in the labs. The vision of providing experiential engineering education at Echelon is initiated with enquiry that initiates with an inquiry reflecting on the working and design of the chosen field of interest going through the rigours of analytical understanding of the subject through problem solving, assignments, lab work and ultimately engaging on the ground in communities ranging from industry to a social milieu. Working on live projects in the institute campus, in a village or in the industry is a way of student's life at the campus, naturally making available a live & experiential understanding of technology and engineering.

THE HUMAN TECHNOLOGY : A WHOLESOME ENGINEERING PERSPECTIVE

INDUSTRY ALIGNED TRAININGS (Other than the CoEs)

Training programs integrate and holistically unifies theory with practice through hands-on labs, real-world projects, and in-situ industry-standard platforms (including equipment tools and machineries). Students grow in and through technical skills and practical experience sought by top companies and are nurtured by bringing forth the hidden Intelligence, Creativity, Leadership and Entrepreneurial spirit within. The dedicated Training & Placement Department and the Entrepreneurship Development Cell and a robust Alumni Network are committed for experiential transmission of these programmes.
